

BIOGRAPHY

Tan Sri Cecil Abraham was admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya and the Supreme Court of Singapore. He graduated from Queen Mary College, University of London (QMUL) with an LL.B. Hons and is a Fellow of QMUL. He is a Barrister-At-Law and also a Bencher of The Middle Temple.

Cecil has very extensive appellate court practice in the Court of Appeal and Federal Court of Malaysia. He has acted as Counsel in many landmark cases. Cecil has appeared in the Privy Council when the Privy Council was the final Court of Appeal in Malaysia in 5 landmark cases.

Cecil was a founder member of the Medico Legal Society and in the past, has acted for the Medical Defence Union in medico legal cases.

He recently acted as amicus on behalf of the Association of Private Hospitals in the Federal Court where the issues of vicarious liability of consultants and non-delegable duty of private hospitals were the subject matter of the appeals.