

PALANI AMMAL @ SHARON

Graduated with LLB Hons (2nd Upper) from University of Northumbria, Newcastle UK in 2005 and continued with Post Graduate Diploma in Bar Vocational Course and was awarded a Very Competent standing in 2006.

Admitted as a Barrister of Lincoln's Inn, London in Year 2006, admitted to the Malaysian Bar in Year 2007.

Primary area of work is in civil dispute resolution with sub speciality in Clinical Negligence, Breach of Confidence, Medical Product Liability, as well Healthcare Ethics and a special interest in criminal litigation focusing on Medical Law.

Completed consultancy work for Ministry of Health Malaysia in drawing up Informed Consent Forms for Ophthalmic Surgeries, is a committee member of the Law Revision Committee (AG Chambers) Latent Damage and Compendium of Personal Injury in Malaysia.

Regularly provides updates to Doctors, Hospital Managers and other Allied Healthcare Professionals on medical negligence cases, breach of confidence and product liability as well as medical law related to criminal offences.

Current Secretary of the Medico Legal Society of Malaysia 2016 /2017, a member of the Medico Legal Society of Singapore, Medico Legal Society of London, World Association for Medical Law and a committee member of the Selangor Bar Committee in charge of Continuing Legal Education.

Future aspirations to set up an 'Institute of Independent Medical Experts in Malaysia'.

