

Gagan Bhalla, Chief Executive Officer, Apollo Sugar Clinics

Gagan is the Chief Executive Officer of Apollo Sugar, an innovative single speciality integrated care delivery model, focused on providing proven care for Diabetes and Endocrine patients. Gagan is a business leader with over 18 years of strategic and operating experience in Healthcare and Health Insurance industries globally. He has an in-depth understanding and expertise of Healthcare and a demonstrated capability to create new innovative ventures, substantially improve and scale business operations, develop leaders, and to deliver transformations.

He has been with Apollo Sugar since July 2014. Before Apollo Sugar, he has had very successful stints at Max Bupa, a leading specialist Health Insurer in India where he was Director, Healthcare operations, and at Aetna, a Fortune 100 company as Global Managing Director of Strategy, and M&A. Gagan has worked globally in Healthcare industries across US, Europe, & Southeast Asia.

Gagan has been recognised by The Economic Times and Spencer Stuart among India's Top 40 Under 40 – a list of the top CXO level business leaders in India. He has also been awarded the prestigious Young Alumni Achievers Award from his alma mater, IIT Bombay, for outstanding professional achievements.