

DR S'NG KIM HOCK

MBBS (Malaya) 1976

MRCP (UK) 1982

Diploma in Clinical Neurology (London) 1985

A practising Neurologist since 1991, served in government till 1999, and then in Gleneagles Intan Medical Centre for ten years, before moving to Pantai Hospital Kuala Lumpur since 2009. Currently, President of ASPMP (Association of Specialists in Private Medical Practice Malaysia) since 2013.

Previously National Chairman of SCHOMOS/MMA in 1994, and President University of Malaya Medical Alumni. Also an author of "How to Communicate with the Doctor" and over a dozen e-books with Amazon and Smashwords. A regular contributor to the English tabloids Letter section, and an active debater since school days, and also during government service,