

Assoc. Prof. To' Puan Dr Safurah bt. Jaafar is currently a lecturer in the Community Medicine Department in the International Medical University Malaysia in Bukit Jalil. She was formerly The Director of Family Health Development Division with the Ministry of Health Malaysia. She has been instrumental in the preparation of the Private Aged Health Care Bill and has been involved with the various policy development and policy analysis for the care of the aged.

She received her first degree MBChB from the University of Alexandria in 1981 and completed her Master in Public Health from the National University of Singapore in 1985. In 1993 she returned from the Northeastern University in Boston with Master in Business Administration. She is also a Fellow in Public Health with the London Royal College of Physician