

SPEAKER PROFILE

Dr Md Khadzir bin Sheikh Hj Ahmad, MD, PhD is the Head of Health Informatics Centre (HIC), under the Planning Division of the Ministry of Health, Malaysia. He received MD degree from the National University of Malaysia, Master degree in Occupational Medicine from National University of Singapore and PhD in Occupational Health from the University Of Birmingham, UK.

He had a colourful background, starting with drafting health laws; medical ethics and; program the registration of traditional and complementary medicine practitioner in Malaysia.

Currently, he is heading the development and operation of electronic Health Information Management System, its integration and interoperability in various platforms by enforcing the health informatics standards for Malaysia. With HIC's main aim to be the source of information from Ministry of Health to external agencies, he is also spearheading the Malaysian Health Data Warehouse (MyHDW) project.

Visit : <https://myhdw.moh.gov.my>