

Dr. Jeffrey Doucette is the Vice President of Magnet Recognition Program[®] and Pathway to Excellence[®] at the American Nurses Credentialing Center. Prior to joining the ANCC, Dr. Doucette was the Regional Vice President, Clinical Services and Chief Nursing Officer for Bon Secours Hampton Roads Health System in Hampton Roads, Virginia.

Dr. Doucette completed his Doctor of Nursing Practice at Old Dominion University. He received a Master of Science in Health Care Administration and a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Marymount University in Arlington, Virginia. He serves as an Adjunct Assistant Professor in the DNP program at Old Dominion University and teaches in the graduate program at Virginia Commonwealth University.

Dr. Doucette has been practicing for 25 years, spending the majority of his career in leadership and executive nursing roles. In addition, he serves on the editorial advisory board for Nursing Management Journal and speaks extensively throughout the world on topics of interest to nursing leaders. Dr. Doucette is a Robert Wood Johnson Executive Nurse Fellow and a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives.

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Jeff Doucette.